

RELEASER - 9 August 1991

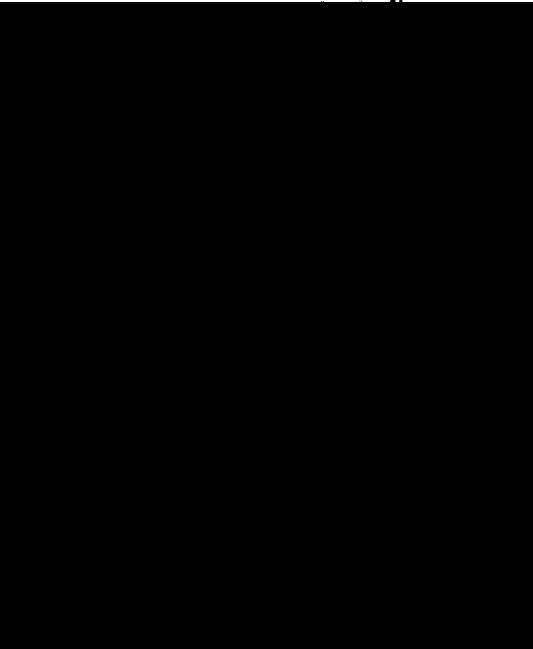

NOTICE

NO. - 51

SUBJECT: Effective Date for the Overseas Appointments.

1. When an individual is appointed from his home in the United States, at a point outside the metropolitan area of Washington, D. C., for duty abroad, the effective date of entrance on duty will be the day the employee departs from his home. Any part of a calendar day of entrance on duty shall be treated as a full day of duty for pay purposes. Time spent in a travel status from date of entrance on duty until time of reporting for duty in Washington, which is it deemed of that necessarily required, shall be considered as excess travel time and charged to leave without pay.

Concurrence or Comment:

25X1A9a

25X1A9a